1. PENSION

The pension calculation is based on three factors:-

- (i) (A) - your length of pensionable service;
- (ii) (B) - your final annual average pensionable salary earned during the last year of service;
and
- (iii) (C) - the factor applicable to your age at retirement as per following table:

Age	65	64	63 (or 40 yrs qualifying service)	62	61	60	59	58	57	56	55
Factor	2.475%	2.3625%	2.25%	2.1375%	2.035227%	1.932955%	1.840909%	1.748864%	1.656818%	1.564773%	1.482955%

$$\text{Annual Pension} = (A) \times (B) \times (C)$$

2. GRATUITY

The amount that you will receive as a gratuity when you retire is based on three factors:-

- (i) (D) - your length of continuous municipal service (D);
- (ii) (E) - your annual average pensionable salary earned during the last year of service; and
- (iii) (F) - the factor applicable at your age of retirement as per following table:

Age	65	64	63 (or 40 yrs qualifying service)	62	61	60	59	58	57	56	55
Factor	7%	7%	7%	6.666%	6.333%	6%	5.667%	5.334%	5.001%	4.668%	4.335%

$$\text{Gratuity} = (D) \times (E) \times (F)$$

3. COMMUTATION OF PENSION (NOT APPLICABLE TO CATEGORY 3 MEDICAL BOARDINGS)

Your own personal decision:

- (a) The Fund permits a retiring member, if he/she so elects, to commute up to 33,3% of his/her annual pension.
- (b) A lump sum is made available and the annual pension is reduced by the percentage commuted.
- (c) The value of the lump sum is determined by multiplying the value of the annual pension commuted by a factor based on your age as per following table:

Age	65	64	63	62	61	60	59	58	57	56	55
Factor	10.60	10.98	11.35	11.73	12.11	12.48	12.68	13.23	13.61	13.98	14.35

$$\text{Commutation} = \text{Annual Pension} \times \text{percentage commuted} \times \text{factor at retirement age.}$$

3.1 ADVANTAGES OF COMMUTATION

- (a) An additional lump sum benefit on retirement.
- (b) Whether you commute or not, the amount of the spouse pension payable on death will be unaffected.
- (c) A reduced pension will result in a lower average/marginal tax rate.

3.2 DISADVANTAGES OF COMMUTATION

- (a) Lower monthly pension.
- (b) Lower annual bonus.
- (c) All future increases based on lower base pension.
- (d) Additional lump sum amount subject to tax.

3.3 REASONS FOR COMMUTING

- (a) you wish to pay off an interest bearing debt.
- (b) to reduce tax payable on monthly pension.
- (c) if the investment income earned from the commutation exceeds the pension forfeited.
- (d) to maximise benefits payable in the case of early death.

3.4 SHOULD I COMMUTE?

You should take the following into account:-

- (a) Your ability to make sound investments and particularly investments which will give you capital growth over a period of years to offset at least some of the effects of inflation. (Your pension is at least partially inflation-protected by the guaranteed annual increases paid by the Fund).
- (b) The need to monitor your investments on a continuous basis in case the need arises to switch out of one of the investments into another in order to protect your capital.
- (c) The affect on the payment of tax on your monthly pension, lump sum benefits and investment earnings. This will depend on your tax bracket and nature of your investment earnings.
- (d) The fact that the commutation of your pension does not affect the pension payable to your spouse.

You should think very carefully before investing in any interest bearing type of investment (e.g. fixed deposit, participation bond, mortgage bond, Government stocks, tax free deposits, etc.), where the income from the investment and the capital value of the investment may not increase over the years, and where taxation and inflation absorb a part of what otherwise looks like an attractive investment.

Whilst you may initially be well off with this type of investment, the return may not increase in line with your living costs which increase with inflation, making it more difficult as the years go by to meet your living expenses from the income. You are strongly advised to seek the advice of a reputable registered financial adviser to assist you in the above regard.

4. TAX ON LUMP SUMS

Tax on lump sums is payable. Tax is only payable on lump sums in respect of service after 1998-03-01. To calculate the taxable amount you need to multiply the lump sum by the number of completed years service you have after 1998-03-01 divided by your pensionable service. The tax rates are as follows:

Taxable Amount	Tax Rate
R0 – R500 000	0%
R500 001 – R700 000	18%
R700 001 – R1 050 000	27%
+R1 050 001	36%

5. BIRTHDAY AWARDS

Birthday awards are payable in the month a pensioner or surviving spouse turns 70, 80, 90 and 100 years of age.

6. ANNUAL BONUS

An annual bonus is paid in November each year. The bonus paid is equal to the actual pension paid in that month. The first bonus payable is in proportion to the number of months that the member had been on pension in the preceding 12 month period.

7. ANNUAL INCREASES

Increases in pensions are granted from 1 July each year. The Fund's pension increase policy is to increase pensions in line with the average monthly increase in the consumer price index over the previous 12 months ended the prior January of each year. Any increase in pensions is subject to affordability. The eThekweni Municipality has however agreed to guarantee that pensions will be increased each year by at least 60% of the increase in the consumer price index. Thus, in accordance with the Fund's current increase policy and the Municipality's guarantee, pensions are increased by between 60% and 100% of the consumer price increase each year.

8. BENEFITS ON DEATH OF A PENSIONER

8.1 The widow/widower of a pensioner will be entitled to the same pension as the deceased pensioner for a period of three months and thereafter will receive 60% (40% if married after retirement) of the pensioner's pension prior to commuting.

The table below provides examples of the widow/er pension payable in various circumstances:

% Commuted at Date of Retirement	% of Deceased Member's Actual Pension Payable to Widow/er
	Married Before Retirement	Married After Retirement
0%	60%	40%
10%	66.7%	44.4%
25%	80%	53.5%
33 $\frac{1}{3}$ %	90%	60%

- 8.2 Child pensions will also be payable if the child has not been married and is:-
- (a) less than 18 years of age; or
  - (b) up to 24 years of age if still in continuous full-time study and subject to successful educational progress.
- 8.3 The calculations of the widow/widower pension may only commence once the Fund is in receipt of the following documents:
- (a) certified copy of death certificate
  - (b) marriage certificate
  - (c) banking instructions of widow/widower
  - (d) widow/widower's identity document
  - (e) children's identity documents and proof of continuous full time study if over 18 years of age.

The administrative process of bringing a widow/widower onto the pay system following the death of a pensioner does take time and alternative provision should be made to meet monthly expenses for up to 2 months following receipt of the required documentation.

9. RESIDUAL VALUE

In all instances a minimum benefit amount is payable by the Fund. The value of this benefit is equivalent to twice the member's contributions less any amount paid in the form of a commutation and/or monthly pension.

11. PAYMENT OF PENSIONS TO NON-RESIDENTS

When a pension is required to be paid in a foreign currency it will be necessary for the pensioner to open a "non-resident" account with a South African bank into which the Fund will pay the monthly pension. The non-resident pensioner will then make arrangements directly with his South African bank for withdrawals in the foreign currency of choice. In the event of the pensioner predeceasing his/her spouse the non-resident widow/er will be required to open her/his own "non-resident" account with a South African bank into which her/his pension will be paid. To avoid difficulties and delays associated with the opening of a "non-resident" account from outside the borders of South Africa it may be advisable for the member's spouse to also open a "non-resident" account in her/his name prior to leaving South Africa. These arrangements should be discussed with your bank.
